Witness Due In Airing Of Rights Issue

Committees Slated To Hear From Gov. Sanders, Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Carl E. Sanders of Georgia testifies before one Senate committee and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy before another today on civil rights legislation.

In the House, representatives of major Negro organizations had an appointment with Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., to urge inclusion of a fair employment practices provision in the administration's omnibus civil rights bill.

Sanders was called before the Senate Commerce Committee, which is holding hearings on one part of the seven-point package—a bill to require desegregation of stores, restaurants, hotels and other private businesses serving the public.

Along with Sanders, the fifth Southern governor to testify on the measure, the committee was to hear from Atty. Gen. Joe Patterson of Mississippi.

The Senate Judiciary Committee, which called Kennedy back for additional questioning, is proceeding at a far more leisurely pace with hearings not only on the public accommodations provision but on the other parts of the package.

Kennedy is the only witness the committee has heard except for opening statements of its own members — chiefly Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C. The hearings began July 16.

2 Firms Sign Dairy Strike Front Cracks

A strike that has cut off the milk supply of most families over a vast section of southwestern Pennsylvania continued into the second day today, but two dairies were back in operation after having come to terms with the striking union.

The Keystone Dairy Co. of New Kensington and the Better Dairies Indiana Dairy, Inc., of Kittanning reached agreements on new labor contracts Monday night.

The union, representing about 3,000 milk truck drivers and plant workers, still is on strike against 39 other companies in eight counties. Negotiators are scheduled to meet with union officials today at Pittsburgh in a resumption of efforts to end the strike.

F. K. Price, secretary-treasurer of Keystone, and R. G. Best, office manager for Better Dairies, confirmed the signing of agreements last night.

Conrad Milroth, director of the Greater Pittsburgh Dairy Association, disclosed the union seeks a 10-cent pay hike for plant workers. There are 1,800 plant employees and 1,200 drivers in the local.

The union also seeks a $2.50 increase in commissions on sales by retail drivers and a $1 increase for wholesale drivers, he said.

Beaver County reported little shortage of milk because small, independent dairies continued deliveries and consumers near state lines could buy an adequate supply at Ohio and West Virginia stores.

Crews Blast Quake-Torn Ruins Of City

SKOPJE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Dynamite squads spelled the final doom today of what remained of pestilence-threatened Skopje, 90 per cent of which was ripped beyond repair by Friday's earthquake.

Rescue crews dug 10 more persons from the rubble before the blasting began Monday night. Trapped for more than 80 hours, they were located by a tiny microphone inserted into the ruins.

In case there were more survivors, the dynamite charges were planted only in buildings where no one could be alive.

The government hurried to level this once bustling city of 270,000. Fear of a typhus outbreak left no choice.

The government promised that Skopje, capital of Yugoslav Macedonia, will rise again. Geologists are to decide whether the present, centuries-old site is safe for rebuilding or whether survivors should begin life anew at another location.

Dynamite blew apart cracked buildings checked first for signs of life with the microphone, so sensitive it can pick up the sound of a man breathing.

The count of dead stood near 1,000. Hundreds more bodies were believed buried in acres of ruins.

Two of the bodies recovered were presumed to be those of U.S. Air Force Sgt. Harold R. Stacy of Gouverneur, N.Y., and his German wife.

Other Americans known to have been in Skopje escaped.

Under government orders, 150,000 residents had left by Monday night.

Crews labored in an almost unbearable stench of the dead and broken sewers. A heat wave and a water shortage compounded the atmosphere of nausea.

The government predicted that once a fleet of trucks, tractors, bulldozers and earthmovers rolled into high gear, the city would be cleared in a matter of days.

Officials discovered that hundreds of hastily dug graves were too shallow. Hygiene teams were ordered to spray them with disinfectant while deeper trenches were dug for mass burials.

Other workmen set up facilities to make life less terrible for those

Chester High In Plan

Part Of Hancock Schools To Hold Half-Day Classes

Preparing for the opening of school in the fall, the Hancock County Board of Education Monday night adopted a plan calling for half-day sessions in Chester and Weirton until new buildings in a $5 million expansion are ready for pupils.

The plan calls for the upper grades of Newell, Chester and New Cumberland to use Chester High School for morning sessions starting Sept. 3, with the schedule to be in effect until Oct. 15.

Chester Junior High pupils will attend classes only in the afternoons at the high school building until the upper grades can be transferred to the new Oak Glen building in Pughtown.

Supt. Robert H. Hall emphasized that the half-day plan applies only to high school students from Chester, Newell and New Cumberland, and Chester Junior High pupils, and the same grades in Weirton.

U.S. Doubts Summit May Be In Offing

Rusk Trip Believed No Preliminary To Top Conferences

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials expressed strong doubt today that Secretary of State Dean Rusk's forthcoming talks in Moscow will become a prelude to a summit conference.

They said Rusk will carry a letter from President Kennedy to Soviet Premier Khrushchev, but it is expected to be only a reply to the message Khrushchev sent to Kennedy via Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman.

Khrushchev's letter, high-ranking sources said, expressed his satisfaction with the agreement to ban all nuclear tests except underground but did not offer any suggestions on further steps to ease East-West tensions.

Kennedy's reply is expected to express similar feelings without attempting to break new ground. State Department officials denied any thought is being given to a meeting between Kennedy, Khrushchev and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Great Britain.

That possibility was mentioned by Lord Hailsham, British negotiator at the test ban treaty talks in Moscow.

Officials here pointed to Kennedy's remark at a press conference July 17 that "there is no evidence that a summit is indicated or needed."

Also, U.S. officials don't believe Khrushchev himself wants a summit meeting now.

Rusk is scheduled to leave Saturday for Moscow to sign the U.S.-Soviet-British partial test ban treaty and to check on the way the Kremlin wind is blowing.

While in the Soviet capital, Rusk intends to continue exploratory talks Harriman began on proposals Khrushchev made in a Kremlin speech July 19.

Among other things, the Soviet leader suggested tensions could be eased by a nonaggression pact between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Communist Warsaw Pact countries.

U.S. officials stressed that Rusk has no mandate to negotiate for NATO.

August Start Planned For Street Work

The administration hopes to arrange a start in late August on the city's low-cost street surfacing program, but it's not too late to file petitions for the work, Safety Service Director Robert Owen said today.

Owen said he expects to confer soon with officials of the Ohio Valley Paving Corp. of St. Clairsville, the contractor, seeking to arrange a starting date for the project late next month.

The contract was awarded July 2 by Mayor Bert H. Goodball and the director on the basis of bids opened June 21. Ohio Valley submitted the lowest of three offers on 20,000 square yards of surfacing.

The cost to property holders will be 17 cents per linear foot for an 18-foot wide street, with other charges varying in proportion to the width of the streets.

Twenty-one petitions have been filed to date, but most of them are for short stretches.

Owen said today that neighborhood groups which have filed the petitions should telephone his office or send a representative to obtain data on the overall cost of the work and the cost per foot to property-owners. All 21 of the streets have been measured by the engineer's office and the cost figures have been prepared, he said.

When a neighborhood group obtains the cost data, it will be

Democrat Declares Treaty Has No Side Issues For Soviet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana said after a conference with President Kennedy today that there are "no gimmicks, no side issues," tied to the Moscow test ban treaty.

The Senate Democratic leader said the limited test ban agreement has broad support not only in the Senate which must ratify it, but in the House as well.

"We informed the President the chances for strong bipartisan ratification of the treaty by the Senate were excellent and that we expected the ratification would come as soon as possible," Mansfield said after the weekly White House breakfast session of Democratic congressional leaders.

Mansfield said Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman created a tremendous impression in his appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations and the Armed Services Committees and the Joint Atomic Energy Committee Monday.

He said Harriman answered all questions frankly and openly.

It appeared, however, that Senate Republican leaders have killed any chance of a bipartisan display at the formal signing of the test ban treaty in Moscow.

Minority leader Everett M. Dirksen said he had not been invited to accompany Secretary of State Dean Rusk on the ceremonial trip and would not go if he were. Rusk visited with the Illinois Senator briefly Monday but Dirksen said they did not discuss the matter.

"I feel that I should not go even if I were invited because acceptance would leave the implication that I approved of the treaty

2 Assistants Appointed

Robert Starkey Named Oak Glen's First Coach

The Hancock County Board of Education acted on assignments of coaching staffs at the new Oak Glen High School Monday night, naming 31-year-old Robert G. Starkey of Weirton as head mentor in three major sports.

Accepting the recommendations of E. Russell Slack, administrative principal of Oak Glen, the board named Starkey as head coach in football, basketball and track at the new school, which will consolidate the upper grades of Chester, Newell and New Cumberland this fall.

STARKEY, formerly of Cumberland, Md., gained prominence in the scholastic coaching field by reviving Weir High School's track program in the past few years.

His assistants in football will be John J. Kuzio of New Cumberland and Vincent Monseau, a new member of the county educational staff.

Kuzio will also assist Starkey in basketball. The board named Kuzio as head baseball coach.

Monseau was named head wrestling coach, and also assistant to Starkey in track.

Starkey attended Potomac State and Shepherd College, and received eight varsity letters in three sports. In addition to reviving Weirton's track program and developing some outstanding athletes, he served as assistant football and basketball and head track coach of the Red Riders since 1958.

KUZIO, 43, a graduate of Pitt, was all-sports assistant at New Cumberland for 10 years under Charles Miller and became head coach in 1960. Kuzio's football and basketball teams at New Cumberland compiled some outstanding records.

In football, the Blue Raiders won 7, lost 2 and tied once in 1961, and last year won eight of 10 games. Kuzio's cagers won the

10 Tax Cases On 18 Counts Slated Aug. 6

Wilkinson Charges Violations Of City Income Ordinance

Ten persons charged with a total of 18 counts of violation of the city income tax ordinance are due for Municipal Court hearings Tuesday, Aug. 6, at 9 a. m.

Affidavits naming the 10 were filed in court Monday by D. G. Wilkinson, city income tax commissioner. Each of the defendants was to be served with a summons today by Bailiff Wilbert Taylor.

Eight of the individuals are charged with two counts each. The other two are accused of one violation apiece.

Following its long-standing custom, the court will not release the names of the defendants until after the summonses have been served.

Eight of the defendants are charged with failure to file a declaration of estimated income for 1963 and failure to file a final return on 1962 income.

In the other two cases, one man is accused of failure to file an estimate on this year's earnings and the other is charged with failure to file a final return

The South's View

Affection Mixed With Prejudice

What is the naked basis of the white man's resistance to integration of the Negro in America? Here is a hard look at the core of the problem, often hidden behind polite reasons and rationalizations. Second of a special series of articles comprehensively surveying both sides of today's racial crisis.

By BELMAN MORIN

MACON COUNTY, Ala., (AP)—It is not uncommon in the South to hear a segregationist say that, by and large, he likes the Negro.

He sees no inconsistency between having an affection for Negroes and at the same time defending a system that denies them full equality. "The Negroes as a whole just aren't ready yet," he says. "It's not their fault, but that's the way it is at this point."

A key point in his reasoning is that the great majority of Negroes are like children and that, for the time being, they must be treated as such.

A composite of many conversations with the thoughtful type of segregationist goes pretty much like this:

"When I was a kid, my best friend was a colored boy. We played together, fished together, slept side by side on hunting trips. I was in and out of his house every day and he was in mine, eating from the same kitchen table."

"After we grew up, I paid his hospital bills and loaned him money when he needed it. I went to the weddings and funerals in his family and he came to ours. On Saturday night, when he got into trouble with the law, who went to the jail at 2 a. m. and bailed him out? I did."

It was a comfortable, harmonious relationship, he says.

Even today, while racial strife rises toward the danger point in many places, you can still see this relationship between individual Negroes and whites in the South.

Here is a cotton plantation deep in Alabama.

It is about 10 miles from the nearest community, the nearest sheriff or policeman. In the county, Negroes outnumber the whites, five to one.

The doors of the planter's home are never locked. When he has to travel, he tells the Negro foreman, "I'll be away a few days. You look after things around here."

Driving into the plantation, you see a softball game in a field near the planter's house. Three of his children, including a girl, are playing with the children of the Negro "hoe hands."

Some miles away, in a corner of the plantation, an aged Negro woman sits, rocking on the porch. She is the widow of a "hoe hand" who worked here many years. The house is hers as long as she lives. The planter asks if she is all right. "Gettin' along jes' fine," she says.

A little scene takes place in the cotton fields. As the Negroes stop work for their mid-day meal, the planter slips a dollar bill into a

Loans Now Available

In Midland Flood Loss

Mayor Eli Corak said today homeowners and businesses that had damage in the Midland flash flood of July 22 now may apply for low-cost federal loans. Applications may be made with the Small Business Administration's regional office at Fulton Building, Pittsburgh, to assist with the cost of cleanup and repair.

Rep. Frank Clark announced Monday Beaver County had been declared a disaster area because of Midland's heavy damage estimated at the time at $250,000.

What assistance the borough itself can expect will be discussed at Council meeting Aug. 8. Midland's budget made no provisions for such emergency costs. The Robinson Pipe Co. of Canonsburg meanwhile began work on cleaning and inspection of storm sewers Monday for flood damage.

Patrols Nab North Korea Raid Force

Fighting Takes Life Of American In 7th Infantry Division

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—U. S. Army patrols and South Korean national police hunted down and killed four North Korean soldiers today six miles south of the demilitarized zone.

An American soldier and a South Korean police officer also lost their lives in the grassy river bottomland south of the Imjin River near Dangdong-ri.

Col. George Creel, the U.N. Command spokesman who confirmed the four North Koreans were dead, said they could be part of the same raiding patrol which machine-gunned a 1st Cavalry Division jeep Monday, killing two U.S. soldiers and wounding another on their way to guard duty in the demilitarized zone.

There also was speculation the four North Koreans killed today were agents bound on a mission of violent espionage. They carried automatic weapons and hand grenades.

The first North Koreans were gunned down about 9 a. m. It was in this clash that a soldier of the U.S. 7th Infantry Division and the Korean police officer died.

At about 4 p. m., the other two North Koreans were surrounded in deep grass west of the road to Panmunjom and about a mile south of Freedom Bridge.

While an American Army helicopter hovered overhead, about 50 national policemen and half a dozen U.S. soldiers closed in. Two hand grenade explosions were heard, leading to speculation the agents took their own lives.

Associated Press photographer Kim Chong-kil and reporter An Mu-hun arrived on the spot shortly before the shooting started this afternoon. They interviewed the husband of an old woman who was held captive by the four Communists.

Yang Chon Soon, 52, was out collecting mushrooms in the bushy area where the grass is head high. Suddenly someone grabbed her by the wrist and demanded:

Offer Spurs Prospects Of Rails Peace

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators working on ways to settle the rail-labor dispute say they are encouraged by a union official's announcement that the brotherhoods have submitted a new proposal to the railroads.

L. J. Wagner, president of the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen, told the Senate Commerce Committee the new offer was made Saturday in the reopened bargaining session.

He said no reply had come from the carriers and said he didn't believe they had had time to present one.

However, Daniel P. Loomis, president of the Association of American Railroads, was at the hearing and when asked by a reporter about Wagner's statement, he said: "I have heard about nothing new that amounts to anything."

The railroads and unions resumed Labor Department bargaining sessions Friday under prodding from legislators who expressed fears that Congress might set a dangerous pattern by stepping into the dispute.

Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., the Commerce Committee's acting chairman, has said he doesn't think the two sides are too far apart to reach an agreement through bargaining.

However, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz has cautioned he sees no chance of a settlement except through legislation.

To give Congress a chance to act, the railroads have postponed again until Aug. 29 the new work rules which will eliminate thousands of jobs and which the union have said will trigger a nationwide strike.

Representatives of the five operating unions continued their testimony Monday in opposition to President Kennedy's recommendations for averting a strike by turning the dispute over to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The Senate Commerce Committee stayed in session until almost 10 p.m. to hear the last union spokesman—Neil P. Speirs, president of the switchmen.

He said he will "resist all efforts to turn over the economic destiny of these men to a third party who has no understanding of the issues, the problems, and the difficulties which we face."

FBI Breaks Up Postal Fund Ring

CINCINNATI (AP)—The FBI says the arrest of Jay Spencer Marvin, 50, has broken up a Central and Southern Ohio stolen money order ring.

Ed Mason, head of the Cincinnati FBI office, said Marvin surrendered Monday. Three other persons have been charged with passing the American Express money orders stolen from a drug store in Marysville last November.

Marvin was charged with interstate transportation of stolen property. Mason said he has lived at Richmond and Marysville, Ohio, and more recently at Chicago. Marvin was released on $1,000 bond.

The other persons charged in the case are William Dean Parks of Akron and Dayton; Herbert Nicholas Gies, 28, Gary, Ind.; and Lorraine Lucille Foreman, 21, listed only as having lived in hotels at Columbus and Dayton.

Commissioners O.K. Hiring Welfare Aide

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Monday approved the hiring of Miss Martha Needs of Washington St., Salineville, as clerk - typist in the County Welfare Department's office.

Robert Bycroft, welfare director, said she will replace Cynthia Smith, also of Salineville, who resigned.

In other business, commissioners authorized payment of $4.50 for 109 dogs destroyed during July in Wellsville. The commissioners pay Wellsville and East Liverpool 50 cents each for dogs destroyed in the two communities.

Next meeting is Thursday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Negroes, Store Swap Protests Over Hiring

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Congress of Racial Equality demonstrators staged another protest of alleged hiring discrimination at Rike's Department Store at about the same time Rike's was protesting CORE demonstrations Monday.

Two Negro men lay down in the aisles in a fourth floor department of the downtown emporium Monday afternoon and had to be carried out by police. Their arrests on trespass and resisting arrest charges brought to 15 the number arrested at the store since Saturday.

Ten of Saturday's group were arraigned in Municipal Court Monday. They pleaded innocent and remained free on $100 or $200 bonds pending trial at an undetermined date.

Aide Probes Beating Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—Martin A. Janis, Ohio mental hygiene director who is investigating conditions at Cleveland State Hospital that led to the beating death of a 79-year-old patient, says he is "completely at a loss to determine how this could have happened."

Janis was sent to Cleveland Monday by Gov. James A. Rhodes to investigate the death of Arthur W. Judge, a past county commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars who died Saturday in the hospital infirmary.

Police said Judge was beaten by two attendants on July 20 and 21. Charged with first-degree manslaughter Monday were Harold A. Winbush, 26, and Charles L. Williams, both of Cleveland.

They were to be arraigned today. Municipal Court Judge Bernard J. Conway has ordered the two held under $5,000 bond each. Homicide Detective Ralph Armstrong said the two attendants signed statements in which each implicated the other and admitted participating in the beating.

Janis spent several hours touring the hospital wards. He interviewed staff members and patients and reviewed personnel records.

Janis said he found conditions at the hospital exemplary. He said he had uncovered nothing to indicate negligence in the hospital administration.

Janis is to report to Rhodes in Columbus, then return to Cleveland later today.

Hancock Mishaps Cause No Injury

Hancock County sheriff's deputies investigated two traffic accidents involving large trucks and autos Monday, with no one hurt and no charges filed in either.

The first collision happened at 8:15 a. m. on Route 66 near Watson's farm.

A cement - mixer operated by John W. Crissinger, 31, of New Cumberland and a 1963 sedan driven by Albert P. Dickey, 63, of 603 Grant St., Newell collided, causing $300 damage to the car.

Deputies said Crissinger was turning left on a dirt road, and the Newell woman was attempting to pass. Both were southbound.

A 1957 tractor - trailer driven by George A. Sinclair, 44, of Steubenville was turning left off Washington St. in Newell Monday night at 10:15 when the left rear wheels of the trailer struck the left rear fender of the parked 1954 sedan of Donald H. Passage of Lisbon R. D. 2, deputies said. They estimated $50 damage to the car.

Gas Rate Plan At Salineville To Be Studied

SALINEVILLE — A counter proposal to a gas rate increase being sought by the Ohio Fuel & Gas Co. was made by Village Council at a meeting Monday night.

Harry Temple of Salem, district manager for the utility, asked for a 7 per cent overall average increase for a three-year period.

Council countered with a proposal for a 7 per cent increase in all categories for a four-year period.

Councilmen Donald Lewis and Mrs. Katherine Weaver voted against making the offer while Councilmen Gillis Earl and Clyde E. Polen approved it. Mrs. Mary Sweeney abstained and Acting Mayor Orvel Tolson broke the tie by casting an affirmative vote.

Temple said the proposal will be taken under consideration.

Council also adopted a resolution to place a 1.7-mill levy on the ballot for renewal for a five-year period. It is for street lighting. Council rescinded previous action placing a 2-mill levy on the ballot, which was the rate under the old valuation.

Council also adopted a resolution authorizing the Board of Public Affairs to purchase, install and maintain a pump to boost water pressure to outlying residents of Monroe Heights.

The cost of the pump, installation, maintenance and water used will be charged to Dr. J. M. Nedelkoff and Eugene Webster, whose property will be served.

Police Chief Roy Lewis presented a report covering the period from June 24 to Monday. It showed two arrests made, one accident investigated, one warning issued, nine miscellaneous investigations, eight domestic affairs, 43 dog complaints, 123 telephone calls and 29 radio calls.

Next meeting is Aug. 12.

2 Men Charged In Rape-Slaying

CHARDON, Ohio (AP)—Two men from Newbury Township have been charged with rape after admitting they attacked 20-year-old Norma Jean Burns, a Baltimore divorcee killed July 22.

Gauga County Sheriff Louis A. Robusky filed charges Monday night against Andrew (Junior) Pavlsin, 22, a construction worker, and Ronald Jenkins, 18, a recent high school graduate. The sheriff said he would continue to question the men in an attempt to solve the slaying. He said the two said they left Mrs. Burns in a remote field. Her body was found four days later.

Three other Newbury Township men were booked for investigation in the murder.

After an autopsy, Cuyahoga County Coroner Samuel R. Gerber ruled Mrs. Burns was strangled.

Sheriff's deputies said they had learned Mrs. Burns was in a tavern, became ill and fell off a bar stool. Witnesses also said two men put her in an automobile and drove off. That was the last time she was seen alive.

Car Kills Woman, 80

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Becoming confused when the traffic light changed while she was in the middle of West Broad Street Monday night, Rosa Peck, about 80, tried to go back to the curb. The elderly pedestrian was struck and killed by an auto. The driver was not cited.

Jimmy Wynn, 21-year-old rookie shortstop with Houston, hit 290 for Tampa last season.

Bids Opened On Radio Sets

Bids from two firms were opened Monday by the Wellsville Board of Control for two-way radio systems for the police and fire departments.

The bids present several alternate plans for purchase, maintenance, installation and lease, according to Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare.

The bidders were Jim's Two-Way Radio of East Liverpool, operated by James Pelley, and the Motorola Corp. of Monroeville, Pa.

Pelley handles General Electric systems. Motorola is represented by Donald C. Todd of Youngstown.

Baldasare said the board will meet sometime this week to study the bids before letting a contract.

The board also is continuing a study of bids received last week for the annual street improvement program and the cleaning and painting of the water standpipe.

The board consists of Mayor William Daugherty, Baldasare and Auditor Edgar S. Davidson, who acts as clerk.

Unity Asked In Parley Of Asian Chiefs

MANILA (AP)—Indonesia, Malaysia and the Philippines opened a tension-laden summit conference today, and Philippine President Diosdado Macapagal appealed for unity among the Malay nations at a moment of historic importance.

Macapagal told Indonesian President Sukarno and Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia that the projected Federation of Malaysia will be discussed frankly in the manner of brothers.

Macapagal conceded that the conference faces a difficult task. But he said he hopes that by the time the meeting ends Saturday, the three leaders will be speaking with one voice.

Macapagal pointed out that the conference is the first time that leaders of the three Malay nations have come together to consult about common problems.

He said if the three countries can resolve their problems, they will have contributed to the future not only of Southeast Asia but of the world.

Malaysia is the chief issue facing the conference.

Rahman is determined to launch the anti-Communist federation by Aug. 31. It is to embrace Malaysia, Singapore, Sarawak and British North Borneo.

Sukarno is equally determined to wreck Malaysia unless there is a plebiscite in the Borneo territories on the question of joining Malaysia. Malaysia contends a referendum is not necessary, that there have been sufficient samplings of opinion.

The Philippines is trying to mediate. It claims a portion of North Borneo but says it will not oppose the formation of Malaysia.

All three nations say they want to stick to the agreement reached in principle at the conference of their foreign ministers in Manila last month.

The agreement said the wishes of the Borneo peoples should be assessed by U.N. Secretary-General U Thant or his representative. It left the method to Thant.

Cleveland Has Driest 7 Months In 68 Years

CLEVELAND (AP)—Despite 1.02 inches of rainfall the past two days, the first seven months of 1963 will be the driest in Cleveland in 68 years, according to the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Since Jan. 1 only 11.83 inches of precipitation have been measured, compared with 10.2 inches for the first seven months in 1895. Normal precipitation for the Cleveland area through July 31 is 21.59 inches.

Water Board Accepts Grant

The Midland Municipal Authority Monday night adopted resolutions to accept a federal grant for $141,000 and to obtain a loan of up to $140,000 for an expansion of the water treatment plant costing a total of $282,000.

The Urban Renewal Administration recently authorized the grant, requiring formal acceptance as voted at the special meeting last night, and Atty. Robert Masters, solicitor, was instructed to prepare the documents to borrow the remainder of the project cost from the Midland branch of the Beaver Trust Co.

Beaver Trust was also designated as the official depository for the funds, with the account to be known as "Accelerated Construction Fund, 1, Water Plant Expansion."

The authority also passed a resolution authorizing the chairman, Dr. Zavel Sigal, to make application for another federal grant for the construction of a water main to the Ohioville Borough line, for the Ohioville Borough Water Authority, and for construction of a reservoir on Midland Heights.

It was agreed by resolution that if the grant is approved, the authority will expand its capital improvement budget for the coming fiscal year, by an amount approximately equal to the grant.

The authority also instructed the secretary, Mrs. Marlene Westlake, to forward a letter to Rep. Frank Clark, thanking him for his efforts in obtaining the grant. The congressman was also invited to attend the groundbreaking ceremonies for the new addition.

Mexican Police Held 55 Seized By Gunmen

PUEBLA, Mexico (AP)—Police freed on Monday 55 workers who had been held prisoners in a textile factory by 15 gunmen for five days.

The officers crept into the factory and took control without firing a shot.

The gunmen had taken the workers prisoners in an effort to force them to switch unions.

Police acted after several days of constant guard on the factory.

Elkins Crash Claims Youngstown Resident

Rental Plan Adopted For Pupils Books

A plan designed to lighten the financial burden on pupils in their use of textbooks in the Hancock County school system was adopted by the County Board of Education Monday night.

The board decided to purchase $80,000 in new textbooks for the term starting Sept. 3, renting them to students in Grades 7 through 12 for $10 per year or $5 per semester.

Supt. Robert H. Hall said "We think the plan will lighten the financial burden on students and parents."

He pointed out that many new books have been adopted for an enriched curriculum, and for $10 a year a pupil can rent all the new required texts.

Uniform use of the same texts in all the junior and senior high schools in the county is to be initiated this term.

The board furnishes free of charge only the necessary texts for pupils in the first six grades.

Supt. Hall said the yearly costs of books for pupils in Grades 7 through 12 averages about $29.45 per pupil. So the board decided to purchase new texts, and rent them to the pupils for only $10 per year, he said.

"We hope to improve on the plan, and hope to be able to lower the rental. Maybe it will be possible eventually to have free textbooks, but we cannot do it this year," Supt. Hall said.

This is a firing range. Do you have anyone working in the government?"

The woman was held about 20 minutes and let go. Her daughter ran to the police box to report the incident to police, but policemen were out searching for the North Koreans.

The North Koreans came to the area three days ago, they told the frightened woman.

Dangdong-ri is about two miles northwest of Musan-ni, on the road to Panmunjom. It is one mile short of Freedom Bridge, where American prisoners of war returned after the armistice agreement was signed 10 years and three days ago.

The North Koreans were hunted down 400 yards from the headquarters of the 4th Cavalry Regiment command post, which may have been their objective.

Police said Powers obtained money from women by posing as a recently discharged Marine who had lost his wallet.

South

woman's hand. He tells a man to "drive her to the store."

For some reason, she had brought no food to the fields that morning. "Maybe she hasn't got any money," the planter says, "or maybe she just plain forgot. But I sure can't see her go without eating."

In the winter, when the fields are bare, he finds other work on the plantation for his "hoe hands." They have to eat in the winter, too.

The integrationist calls this "Uncle Tomism" and the militant Negro says it is "paternalism," archaic, degrading the Negro, numbing his effort to develop himself.

Let's look further.

The planter frequently works in the fields beside the "hoe hands." The relationship appears completely comfortable. Little jokes—in language largely unintelligible to a Yankee—pass between them. They agree that the cotton looks good.

"Way I figure," says the Negro foreman, "the better the boss does, the better we do." There will be a bonus for them at Christmas.

He has been on this plantation 24 years, another man for 17, several others for 8 to 10 years.

Not all segregationists, of course, profess to like Negroes.

There is the bigot, ridden with fear and hatred of the Negro, clutching his prejudices. He is the night-rider, shooting indiscriminately into Negro homes, dumping garbage on the front porch of white integrationists.

To anyone who pleads for reason and good will in the struggle over civil rights, he scrawls a "hate letter." It is misspelled, ungrammatical, frequently obscene, dripping venom.

"That type of white man," says a Southern newspaper woman, "is at the bottom of the scale and he knows it. The only thing that separates him from an equally poor, uneducated Negro is the color of his skin. He has to look down on somebody so he looks down on the Negro."

But what about the segregationist who says he has a genuine affection for his Negro friends? How does he square this with the fact of injustice and inequality?

He begins with a basic premise, a conviction that underlies most of his attitudes—that, by and large, the Negro has not yet reached a stage of development where he is ready for full equality.

"No race on earth ever made so much progress in 100 years as the Negroes have made," he says. "But they did it with the guidance of the white man and they still need our guidance."

Flowing from that comes his opposition to integrated schools.

"The Negro doesn't have the same capacity for learning," he says. "Moreover, his home environment is seldom conducive to study. So why should my children be held back to his pace? They're both better off in schools where they can advance at their own pace."

The segregationist also says that Negro children frequently come to school unbathed and wearing dirty clothes. He says they come from homes with a high rate of illegitimacy and adds, "I don't want my kids sitting next to kids who talk openly about what they have seen at home."

For similar reasons, he doesn't want his wife and daughter to sit next to a Negro in a movie theater or a lunch counter, use the same fitting rooms in a store, or the same rest rooms.

Does he really believe the Negro's ultimate goal is to "marry your daughter?" Yes, he does. He's convinced of it.

As to the Negro's right to vote, one segregationist said, "There's no reason why their best people shouldn't vote, those who are educated, literate, and able to make a judgment on candidates and issues. But there aren't many with these qualifications."

So it goes, consistently, over point after point—the assertion that the Negro's level of development is not yet at a stage where he is ready for full equality. "What he is asking, segregationists say, 'is the rights without the responsibilities.'"

I once asked a Southern newspaper editor, a segregationist, to itemize the five or six principal reasons why so many Southerners believe in segregation. On the back of an envelope, he set down the various points. Leading his list was the word: "Habit."

Next: The Church's role.

Carburetor deposits!

Just this much can cause stalling, rough idling, gasoline waste!

Boron
cleans carburetors
Boron has a special Carburetor Cleaner that removes carburetor deposits, keeps new deposits from forming!

Only a little deposit inside your carburetor can be a problem for you! Notice the hard ridge of deposit on the walls of the carburetor section above. When the throttle plate is open, as it is here, the deposit is no problem. But when the throttle plate is nearly closed, as it is when you're idling, this amount of deposit is enough to block the air flow to your engine. The result is stalling, rough idling and wasted gasoline!

To remove carburetor deposits, a special, patented Carburetor Cleaner has been added to Boron Gasoline. This special Carburetor Cleaner dissolves dirt deposits and washes them away. Because the deposits are hard, this cleaning process may take time. But the end result will be a Boron Clean Carburetor!

Once your carburetor is clean, the special Carburetor Cleaner in Boron is so effective that, with regular use, it keeps new deposits from forming. So, always use Boron with its special Carburetor Cleaner!

De Gaulle Probably Is Right

The main trouble with President de Gaulle's view of international power politics is the probability time will prove it was the right one.

This is why it is difficult to criticize. The president of France has done nothing more radical than to guess that in the long run the security of France will hinge on its own strength, not on the strength of the United States, not on any military alliance, nor on any pooling of interests.

All these things will have bearing and have had bearing in recent years, as the symbolic leader of France's return to glory asserted in his press conference Monday. But without strength of its own, France again would be as helpless as it had become by the beginning of World War II, when its alliances and arrangements availed nothing against the superior strength of Germany.

DE GAULLE press conferences have become a symbol of the man's tremendous stature in international politics.

They are attended by everybody who can get in, because this one man's views now are of world-shaking importance.

Last January when he vetoed Britain's entry into the Common Market he shook the world with one statement.

His earth-shaker this time was refusal to join a nuclear test ban, though this had been anticipated.

France is determined to hold full membership in the nuclear club and does not propose to be barred by a prohibition of nuclear testing. President de Gaulle says this has to disagree with President de Gaulle, nothing to do with any feeling against the United States; that it is concerned only with his determination to re-establish France as a major power.

THIS, of course, is what makes it difficult. He wants for France only what every patriot wants for his country — its own security, independently of promises and pledges that never are worth the paper they're written on when trouble starts.

Self-interest, in the long run, is all that matters, and any country that forgets this, is bidding for a shattering disenchantment. President de Gaulle never lets this be forgotten, to the dismay of Americans who try to keep it from being remembered.

Out Of Order

The oft-repeated question "What is there to do?" has been answered time and again this summer as worthwhile activities have been offered on various fronts for East Liverpool and area residents.

The Civil War Centennial — with Morgan's Raid and the famed locomotive The General getting into the act — has kept things more lively than usual; there have been band concerts; there has been boating; there are numerous parks and swimming facilities ever ready to provide entertainment; there have been live theater productions; there have been the many attractions in neighboring communities, including major league baseball, the theater, etc.

In short, many and varied have been the items on the entertainment menu, with residents having only themselves to blame if they haven't taken advantage of them. We are blessed with things to do. And with a lot more in the offing, the oft-repeated question seems entirely out of order.

When Is A Boom A Boom?

Walter W. Heller, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, bore down hard last week in testimony before the House Banking Committee.

He wanted it understood the country is not having a boom by any standard of measurement. He said the rise had been scarcely enough "to keep up with an expanding labor force and growing productivity and thus to prevent increases in unemployment."

As 1963 humbles along, provided employment continues to reach new highs and corporate and company earnings continue to hit all-time tops, the question is going to be when a boom can be a boom in these curious times when employment and unemployment increase simultaneously.

What constitutes a boom? High earnings? Record production? Good prospects?

All these things are present, but there's no boom.

Mr. Heller says there's no boom. People who pore over unemployment figures say there's no boom. Experts familiar with chronic unemployment and underemployment in large areas of the country say there's no boom.

But if things continue in the same direction for another year, does anyone want to bet the Kennedy administration will say there's no boom?

Time To Check

Strip mine ponds and abandoned mine shafts and caves — they all spell trouble.

Recent drownings near the Carroll County line and near the Belmont-Harrison County line in Ohio and the narrow escape of three youngsters from a shaft in the Pittsburgh area serve as reminders of the danger.

We have had scares in our own district, but fortunately there has been no loss of life for some time. But another check seems in order. Entrances to mines and caves can be closed in a hurry, but strip mine ponds present a greater problem.

Some reclamation groups in the state feel they have the answer in Senate Bill 332, which was shelved by a committee of the Ohio Assembly before its recent adjournment. They are calling on Gov. Rhodes to endeavor to revive the bill at the special legislative session scheduled in December.

The bill, if approved, would compel the strip miners to put the land back so it can be used, thus eliminating the canyons which fill up with contaminated water and look like ponds.

The governor should give every consideration to the appeal.

its speed would coincide with that of the earth's rotation and keep it in a fixed position relative to the earth.

Behind this are the involved calculations of the space age and the precision with which spatial relations now can be worked out in theory, though in fact the vast distances under consideration never can be measured.

The obvious shortcoming of a high-altitude satellite is the difficulty of placing it in an exact orbit and keeping it there.

The equally obvious advantage of the medium-altitude satellites now being used is the fact they do not need to be put into exact orbit and can be replaced easily if they fail. Ultimately, there would be so many that the failure of any single one would make no difference.

The Only One Without A Problem

Self-Help Movement For The Poor

By Victor Riesel

PANAMA CITY. Those who make a fetish of socking the rich should come along with me to the fishing village of El Farallon. There you will find the have-nots of all the have-nots. But there, too, you will discover the poorest fishermen being helped out of their poverty by the wealthy businessmen of Panama.

Victor Riesel

This aid—and it is positively not charity—is a self-help experiment launched by some 70 businessmen. It should be watched by the world. It is proving that self-help in a free system can outdo anything the Communist world can offer.

If truly successful, this self-help movement, financed by businessmen for the poor and hungry, will sweep Latin America.

Here it's called ANDE. In Spanish the word means Forward March. But ANDE actually is made up of the initials of the Asociacion Nacional de Desarrollo Economico (National Association For Economic Development).

LOOKING ABOUT for a starting point two years ago, ANDE found the starving fishermen of El Farallon. The villagers, 90 miles up the Pacific coast from here, had only crude dugouts. They were forced to hug the shore. They fished as their ancestors had hundreds of years ago.

ANDE sent in some specialists in boat building. The fishermen were taught to construct their own craft right there on the beach. After these were built, the villagers had "launches" which could go miles out to sea where the big fish run in schools. No longer was it necessary to struggle for the few fish which swim near the coastline.

But the new craft needed power. So ANDE's executives arranged loans for the purchase of outboard motors. Now fishermen were required for the heavy rolling open water. These were also provided—but always on a long term repayment basis.

THE FISHERMEN began to put out to sea. As they increased their catch four and fivefold, they began making payments on the equipment. They have 11 new boats lying on the beach. But they are putting only five out to sea until the returns can finance motors for the other boats.

Soon, in similar ANDE fashion, the villagers will construct an ice making plant and a refrigeration building. Then they'll really be in business.

Not only will they profit there on the shore—but their underfed countrymen in the interior will gain. There always has been a lack of proteins within the interior. Meat is scarce. Now the fishermen of El Farallon are sending their foods of the sea into the interior, not only to increase the diet of their fellow Panamanians, but to balance it as well.

But the businessmen of ANDE are not neglecting the interior. There the "farmers" have been "planting" crops as their forebears did before Balboa first saw the Pacific. They would first clear a jungle patch. Then they'd burn the brush. Then they take a big stick and dig holes. Then they throw the seed into the openings by hand. They had never seen a plow.

NOW ANDE has gone up to Penas Chatas. A few plows have been brought in. As soon as the people learn how to use these plows and till the soil, the businessmen of the big cities will send in additional ones. Better more abundant food and healthier cattle. As the fish come to the interior, the farm produce and meat will go towards the coast.

ANDE has not neglected the big towns. Any ANDE member has an expensive home in Chorrera. He built an extension to it. Then he put in sewing machines and soon had 30 girls learning the seamstress trade.

In one of the worst slum sections, ANDE has built a combination cultural center and employment agency. Young people are welcomed to come off the streets. Delinquency has gone down. Incomes are up.

There are clothing factories in Panama visited regularly by ANDE members, many of whom are extremely busy executives. They seek out clothes which have a slight damage, or have been made into wrong sizes, or suits where the jackets and pants don't match but which are new and indeed usable.

The clothing is distributed to needy men-folk who then can go out and seek work without feeling shabby.

TWO MONTHS ago ANDE was the force behind a convention held here to spur private initiative. There were business delegates from all Central American nations. The objective was to get governments, capitalists and working people to cooperate in an operation bootstrap.

I was told here of a bridge which was desperately needed to make a vital road passable. ANDE members got machinery and engineers from the government.

Residents in the area were convinced to contribute money or labor. The bridge was built. Commercial traffic created almost a new community. Everybody gained.

"We are not giving these people charity which they hate," Tomas Arias, one of ANDE's leaders, told me. We are providing materials and other guidance. We are helping the people to help themselves in a free enterprise system."

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

A few days ago a letter appeared in The Review directed to the Stanton Local Board of Education. Evidently it was done for the purpose of trying to embarrass the Board of Education. It is not the purpose or function of a board of education to engage in a feud with a few dissenters through the medium of the press.

It is regrettable that this group lacked the courage to discuss these matters with the members of the board or administration if they actually are interested. It is interesting to note that not one of this group ever approached the members of the board about school matters. Several of them to our knowledge have never been in the school buildings in a good many years.

The action of the Board of Education on all matters is a matter of public record and open for inspection. Action on all matters taken by the Board of Education, in every instance has been legal, according to policy and with the best interests of the school district in mind.

Status Of The Church

By David Lawrence

One-Sided Wall Of Separation

There's supposed to be a "wall of separation between church and state" erected under the Constitution. At least so the Supreme Court of the United States has said but something happened in Washington last Thursday which indicates that the wall apparently bars entry from only one side.

While the government cannot direct what prayers, if any, shall be used in the public schools or institutions, the government presumably can be directed by the churches as to what laws shall be passed on any subject. Whether it is in the field of "conscience" or "commerce," the principal religious organizations of the nation now assert the right to interpret these words for themselves and to take part in the pressures being exerted in the lobbies of the capitol to secure the enactment of certain laws barring racial discrimination.

Spokesmen for the three big national organizations of churches—Catholic, Protestant and Jewish—have just told Congress that all forms of racial discrimination should be abolished by law.

Three committees of Congress heard the arguments presented by the churchmen dealing with proposed legislation on "civil rights" in respect to retail stores, restaurants, hotels and motels as well as discrimination in employment in various businesses, whether governmental or private.

IN WHAT was described by the church sponsors as "an unprecedented and indeed historic event," a formal statement containing identical words was read before each of three congressional committees.

A Catholic clergyman representing the National Catholic Welfare Conference appeared before a Senate committee and said he spoke for his own and the two other church groups—the National Council of Churches and the Synagogue Council of America. The same declaration was read before another Senate committee the same day by a Jewish rabbi, who, too, testified that he spoke for all three organizations.

A Protestant clergyman likewise presented the same statement before a House committee in behalf of the three church groups.

The declaration said in part: "The religious conscience of America condemns racism as blasphemy against God. . . . Major religious bodies hold simply that God created all men regardless of color, race or national origin, with equal rights and dignity."

"They affirm that differences from such factors as heredity, education, cultural background and opportunities do not in any way affect basic human rights. Thus they have specifically condemned racial discrimination, segregation and prejudice as incompatible with the principles of faith in God."

But which church, if any, is to determine authoritatively for Congress what are the "principles of faith in God?"

Although the three major church groups can send clergymen to the committees of Congress to tell them, in effect, that unless they pass certain laws, they will be violating the "principles of faith in God," two atheists from Maryland recently persuaded the Supreme Court of the United States to rule that children in the public schools should not be allowed to pray or to express even in the vaguest terms their support for the "principles of faith in God." Spokesmen for various Christian and Jewish church groups welcomed the ruling.

SO THERE appears to be a one-sided wall of separation between church and state. These controversies have not been confined to religious questions. Thus the Social Action Department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference appealed in a public statement in 1947 to President Truman to veto the National Labor Relations Act passed by Congress. He did so, but it became a law anyhow as both houses overrode the veto.

This correspondent at the time called attention to attempts by this and other church groups to tell the government what laws should be enacted whether or not they touched religion. For nearly every subject can be rationalized in some way related to "morals" or conscience.

There has been as yet no referendum taken among the members of these churches throughout the country—approximately 116 million according to the 1961 figures—to determine how a majority feel about the asserted right of the church organizations to speak for them on matters of legislation.

Will some individuals risk "excommunication" if they take a dissenting view?

The campaign of some of the church organizations goes beyond mere statements to congressional committees.

A commission of the National Council of Churches, a leading Protestant organization, has just issued a public appeal for 40,000 members to take part in person in the "March of Washington" on Aug. 28. Many ministers, white and Negro, have already participated in the "demonstrations" in different parts of the country, and some have been arrested for disturbing the peace.

THE REAL significance of all the new developments is that there may be a movement started to permit intermarriage. What people in the South have always feared is that enforced social relationships between Negroes and whites of both sexes would eventually bring about intermarriage on a wide scale in America. This, to be sure, is at the root of the problem of the integrated school and is responsible for much of the opposition to mixing of races or social relationships in eating places, hotels and housing facilities.

The expressed position of the churches today on racial discrimination could lead logically to a legal sanction of intermarriage or at least a declaration that for a state to forbid it is "a blasphemy against God."

Introducing Tracy

There's always that touchy time when good advice spooned out to others becomes bitter medicine for your own affliction.

It happened this way at the Twillery when our beautiful Irish setter Tara died unaccountably between midnight, when she went outside to spend the night in the flower bed of her choosing, and early the next morning.

There was no sign of injury, no evidence of suffering. She may have had a heart attack. She could have had a stroke. Whatever happened, it was mercifully quick.

Her death following so soon the death of our spaniel, Freda, left the Twillery with one dog.

We have advised everybody who would listen that it is not good sense to have only one dog if it is possible to have two. Actually, two is enough, though we have had three often than we've had two and would have a dozen if we could afford to fill that many bottomless bellies.

More to the point, we have advised everybody who would listen that a dog whose death brings pain and grief should be replaced immediately.

OUR CONTENTION has been that it is not any one dog that commands the affection which bonds dogs and humans but all dogs. They were put on earth to brighten man's life, and it is nature's plan to make their lives shorter than the span of man's years so he may enjoy a succession of them.

It has been a peculiarity of Twillery dogs that all of them — Hairy, Rossy, Willie, Freckles, Mortimer, Freda, Tara and Trudy — were acquired by happenstance.

Only three entailed an exchange of money — nominal sums to cover charges having nothing to do with the value of the dogs. And this is the way it has worked out again, now that the time is here to provide a playmate for Trudy, the Rampaging Rottwille.

The candidate for the assignment is a young collie, whose given name of "Noodles" is going to be supplanted with a name in the Twillery Model T series — Tracy. It cannot be certain that Tracy is up to the job, but things looked better after she showed her dental work when challenged for the right to be patted by the lady who performs this service at the Twillery.

TRACY came to us through the services of the Humane Society's animal shelter. She is a pure collie, and an eye-catching partner for the coal-black and dark ginger Rottwille — snow white, with a buff saddle and back.

GM Income Hit $5 Million Daily In Spring Period

NEW YORK (AP) — General Motors Corp. made $5.1 million a day in April, May and June, Saturdays and Sundays included.

GM, and probably no other business concern, ever made it faster.

The No. 1 automaker and world's largest industrial corporation set eight sales and earnings records in the second quarter.

Company officials said the excellent second quarter results reflected continued high demand for GM's automotive and nonautomotive products and highs in national employment and personal income.

Profits soared to $464 million. GM said Monday in reporting to stockholders on this spring's unprecedented auto boom.

Earnings were higher at $497 million in the last three months of 1962. But that included $73.5 million from sale of GM's interest in Ethyl Corp. last November.

Second quarter net income came to $1.62 a share of common stock. The comparable sum in the fourth quarter of 1962 was $1.55 after a deduction of 19 cents a share owing to the Ethyl transaction.

Worldwide factory sales in the second quarter totaled 1,646,747, including 1,143,952 passenger cars and 149,775 trucks and coaches produced in the U.S., a U.S. vehicle total of 1,293,727.

Parts Of County Get 'Good Rain' In Storm

July apparently will end on a dry note with no more rain forecast through Wednesday after weekend storms helped ease drought-like conditions.

Edwin Copeland's weather station at Millport recorded 0.72 inch of rain in Monday afternoon's storm but some areas got a lot less, including the Ohio Valley with only 0.12 inch recorded at the Stratton Dam. Sunday's downpour measured 0.18 inch at the dam and only 0.12 at Copeland's station.

Copeland said the rain so far this month totals only 3.21 inches, more than an inch under normal and adding to the growing deficit for the year so far. The showers helped pasture and corn, however, but it will take a lot more rain to benefit crops. The forecast is for more comfortable temperatures, with 78 to 84 seen today and 56 to 64 tonight. Wednesday will be sunny and a little warmer.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I treat the deep marks left on some of my carpets by heavy furniture?

A. Often these will disappear if cold water is poured into the cuplike imprints and allowed to stand for about eight hours. The nap usually snaps back in that time. Or, you can place a damp cloth over the dent in the carpeting and press with a moderately hot iron to raise the nap. Finish off with a light brushing with a stiff brush.

Q. How can I prevent dark cottons from picking up lint from my ironing board?

A. Before starting to iron, go over the cover with a damp cloth or sponge, a wide piece of cellophane tape, or some adhesive tape wound around your hand, sticky side out.

Q. Please suggest a way to clean upholstery.

A. You can do a nice job with a soft cloth dipped into ordinary milk — or, better still, the beaten white of egg. When this has dried, go over the surface again with a clean soft cloth.

Q. What can I do when I am hanging new wallpaper and bubbles begin to show in the new paper?

A. Clamp down on them immediately with a piece of tissue paper held in place with a warm iron.

without knowing fully the effects it will have," Dirksen said.

Dirksen told an informal news conference Monday that the White House suggested but he rejected a conference of leaders of both parties before President Kennedy's Friday night television-radio speech on the treaty, which would ban all except underground tests.

Sen. Burke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee and senior Republican on the Foreign Relations Committee, said in a separate interview he could not accept an invitation to go to Moscow for the signing ceremony, expected to be held next week.

"I think it would be highly improper for me to go in view of the fact that I have not decided whether I will support or oppose this treaty," he said. "I intend to listen to all the evidence on both sides before coming to a conclusion."

GOP Policy Committee members arranged to discuss the treaty but there was no indication that they would take a stand on it. Dirksen said he had made no effort to poll Republican senators and had no idea how they would vote on the agreement worked out by U.S., British and Soviet representatives. Treaty backers are wooing GOP support because ratification would require approval of two-thirds of those voting.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Democratic leader, predicted the treaty will be ratified. Humphrey said congressional mail indicates widespread popular support for it. And the White House reported Monday that more than 1,000 telegrams received since Kennedy's Friday night address and ran more than 12-1 in support of his position.

Cut Sidewalk Weeds, Health Head Requests Health Commissioner Septimus Cook today requested property owners to clear weed-grown sidewalks, declaring they are a health and safety hazard.

Cook said the Health Board has received repeated complaints of weeds and grass obstructing sidewalks. They are a hazard to persons who suffer from allergies, he said. When grass-grown sidewalks become wet, they are a hazard to pedestrians, he added. In other cases, high weeds growing close to walks soak pedestrians' clothes after a rain.

Old brick sidewalks are the worst offenders, as weeds and grass grow in the spaces between the bricks, Cook said. He reminded that a city ordinance requires property owners to keep sidewalks clear of growth.

3 Teen-Agers Killed

ELLWOOD CITY — Three local teen-agers were killed when their speeding car rolled over several times about a mile south late Monday night.

Dead were Ronnie Hogue, 19, the driver, and Ralph Redmond, 17, and Patricia Olisato, 18, passengers.

The Chippewa Barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police said the 1950 Chevrolet was traveling south on Cherry Hill Rd., apparently at a high rate of speed, failed to negotiate a curve, left the road and rolled over several times, coming to rest 110 feet away against a pile of wood. All three were thrown from the car and pronounced dead at the scene.

In Hancock Schools

J. W. Campbell Assigned Director Of Junior Band

J. Warren Campbell, former band director of Chester High School, was assigned as band director of junior high schools by the Hancock County Board of Education on Monday night.

Supt. Robert H. Hall said Campbell will be band director at two junior highs in the county system, although the schools he will serve are undetermined.

The board operates junior high schools in Chester, Newell and New Cumberland. Campbell was former band director at Beaver Local High School.

A band director for Oak Glen High School in Pughtown has not been named. John Larry Clark of Newell and Floyd Lancia of New Cumberland are other band directors in the system, as yet unassigned for the new term.

The board accepted the resignations of two teachers — Miss Ann Rodney Lorentz of Weir High and Richard Bryan, English and physical education instructor at Chester High School. Bryan was transferred to New Cumberland last spring as the board made plans to open new schools in the system.

Augustine Orlandi of Brownsville, Pa., was hired as a new band director, as yet unassigned. Supt. Hall said the board will pass along to the teachers state funds appropriated by the Legislature for increases in salaries.

The increases amount to $95 a year for non-degree teachers, $238 annually for teachers with bachelor's degrees, and $285 a year for those with master's degrees.

With the hikes, the starting salaries will be $4,788 for bachelor's degrees, maximum $7,468, $5,120 for beginning teachers with master's degrees, with a maximum of $6,800.

able to collect funds from each property-owner for payment to the contractor when the work is complete, Owen explained. In each instance, the city pays an amount equal to the property-owners' share, plus the cost of intersections.

Owen said persons contemplating street surfacing programs should participate in this year's projects, if possible.

"Because of the uncertainty of the city's income in 1964, this may be the last opportunity — at least for some time — to have a street surfaced with the city paying half the cost," he said. "For economic reasons, the city may not be able to oil dirt streets next year, which would make a hard surface more desirable than ever," he added.

Owen pointed out the city's share of the 1962 and 1963 surfacing programs has been paid out of income tax receipts. The income tax question will be on the ballot again in November.

Flashlight And Knife Taken In Home Entry

An East Liverpool woman told police her home was entered by an intruder Sunday night, but the only loot was a flashlight and a machete — a long-bladed knife of the type used in the tropics.

The burglaries were reported by Mrs. Ruth Newlan, 230 E. Center Ln. Nothing was taken in the first entry, which occurred between 10:15 p. m. and midnight Sunday, she said. The intruder gained entry by forcing a lock on the front door.

The second entry was timed between 9:35 and 10:45 p. m. Monday. The intruder forced open a door, then ransacked dresser drawers, strewn clothing on the floor and beds, she said. But the only apparent loss was a three-cell flashlight and the machete, Mrs. Newlan told police.

Resolutions For A New Season

Don't panic now, but August is almost upon us. And if August comes, can the 1963-64 television season be far behind? Before we know it, our living rooms will be thronged with dozens and scores and — yes, literally — hundreds of overnight guests who weren't around this season.

IT WON'T BE LONG before we begin sinking into the same bad mode of living we sank into last September, when there was still a fighting chance of kicking the Joey Bishop habit or of breaking the hold "Ensign O'Toole" had on us.

The time to mend our mental fences, believe me, is now, before an entirely new set of temptations is laid out before our eyes and we find ourselves sitting in front of the TV screen night after night after night, in glazed subjection to the personal magnetism of — of whom? Of James Franciscus, that's whom! All it takes is a bit of backbone. And maybe a muscular right thumb and forefinger, which are the implements we use in turning the knob to an OFF position.

What new-season resolutions you make are, of course, your own affair, contingent upon your own esthetics. But here are a few of my own. (There doubtless will be more to come.)

WHEN I FIND that the webbing on my TV chair tends to give out with an alarming frequency, well, I'll just turn the TV set off for awhile.

When the books begin mounting up on the side table, unread and even unopened, then I'll turn the TV off. When I turn around and find that my wife has left me and taken the furniture with her, I'll turn the damned thing off.

And when I find myself opening luncheon conversations with a succession of guffaws and then a "Did ya hear what Zsa Zsa said to Johnny Carson last night?" — the time has come to turn it off.

When I begin quoting Orville Nelson rather than Art Buchwald at the cocktail parties I attend, when I discover that the song I sing in the morning shower is always "Double Your Pleasure, Double Your Fun," when my foot begins tapping to Lawrence Welk's music, when I clap my hands in time with Mitch — then off it goes, off it goes.

THE SET will be turned off, too, under the following conditions: when Jerry Lewis delivers his first editorial on American foreign policy; when the historical figures depicted on "The Great Adventure" take on the waxy look of a resident at Madame Tussaud's; when Preston Sr. of "The Defenders" makes a ringing speech in behalf of mugging rich tots; when Danny Kaye sits down on the apron of the stage and chats with a small one about international amity; or when Vincent Edwards jimmies his way into the cranium of his new girl friend.

I think I'll get to the switch before Frank Fontaine gets to the punch line of a joke I have just read in Sandburg's biography of Lincoln.

And if I learn that Huntley, Brinkley, or "CBS Reports" have programs on any of the following subjects — beatniks, the dumping of chemical wastes into the Monongahela, Switzerland's business leaders, what the English think of Americans, Sanitation Squad 13 (a day in the life of a garbage man), Robert F. Wagner Jr. or the income tax — the dial immediately will be turned to "Espionage" or "Grind!"

I WILL NOT LISTEN long to round-table discussions that involve actors talking about psychiatry, or psychiatrists talking about anything.

Interviews with the heads of small foreign states will be given two minutes at most in our home, at the first "or to put it another way," off the old boy goes.

And the moment Jack Paar reaches for the switch — the one that brings on the home movies — so do I.

The important thing just now, though, is to get practicing on the summer shows so you will be in shape for fall.

Snap 'em off with authority and dispatch. Tolerate none of the mediocre. Take no back lip. Read a book. Kick a ball. Play a record. Kiss your wife.

Man Escapes Crash Injury

A Wellsville area motorist escaped injury in a collision on Route 7 about 1 1/2 miles south of Route 14 Monday afternoon, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

A station wagon driven by Richard Zimmer, 33, of Wellsville R. D. struck the front of a car operated by Robert Miller, 28, of Columbiana, who had driven out from a side road, officers said.

Miller, driving a 1953 coach, failed to halt for a stop sign and went into the path of the 1957 station wagon about 3:40 p. m. Neither driver was hurt. Miller was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Henry Kelly, 22, of Negley R. D. 1 was cited early today for leaving the scene of an accident after his car ran over a state highway marker along Route 154 at Negley.

Kelly was turning around about 12:15 a. m. when his car struck the marker sign. He was apprehended later.

Willis Walker, 55, of Pulaski, Pa., was taken to Youngstown's North Side Hospital after his truck overturned on Route 170 about 1.3 miles north of Route 14 at 2:50 p. m. yesterday.

The patrol said Walker applied the brakes of the truck as he came up behind another vehicle, and the truck skidded on the wet pavement and overturned in a ditch. He suffered possible back and rib injuries.

Cow, Pony Killed By Auto, Truck

A Jersey cow and a pony were highway victims Monday in two area mishaps reported by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

The cow, owned by Eldon Groves of Salem R. D. 5 and valued at $155, was killed by a car operated by Calvin Fickes, 21, of Leetonia on Route 14-A about a half mile east of Salem at 11:25 p. m.

A pony owned by Eugene Crowl of Columbiana R. D. 1 was killed when hit by a tractor-trailer truck driven by Mike Matil, 30, of Butler on Route 7 a third of a mile north of the Columbiana County line.

While Matil was reporting the incident to the owner, the pony carcass was struck by a car operated by Glenn Baker, 21, of Aliquippa, causing about $50 damage to the auto. The truck received about $75 damage, officer said.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruze —

Dear Heloise: Because I run an antique furniture store I am always obliged to clean the brass drawer pulls and feet of tables, etc.

It is a slow, hard-rubbing chore. However, it can be done an easy way. Here's how:

Simply pour the entire contents of a can of liquid metal polish into a deep bowl or can. I remove the brass drawer pulls and feet from the furniture and submerge the item to be cleaned in the bowl of liquid. I let this sit about an hour . . . according to how tarnished the article is.

I remove one piece at a time from the bowl and just wipe the discoloration and tarnish off and polish with a soft dry cloth.

If the piece being cleaned is intricate or ornate in design, a few strokes with an old toothbrush will do the trick!

When all of the drawer pulls and small brass pieces are polished I pour the remaining polish back into the original bottle using a funnel. . . . There is little or no waste of polish.

ED. KIRKLAND
DEAR FOLKS: I would like to try to save those of you who buy refrigerators (without a service policy) a little money.

I recently purchased a refrigerator, but I found that it made a lot of noise.

Know what the trouble was? When refrigerators and washing machines come from the factory (and this especially applies to all of you who get your refrigerators from wholesale places, discount houses, etc.), they come in crates and you are responsible for moving and/or installation.

The motor is bolted to the frame and the box. All the man did for me was to pull the refrigerator out from the wall and remove the bracket which looked like a piece of metal that was attached to the motor and joined the frame of the ice box! And I thought this was part of the refrigerator itself!

The maintenance man told me that one of these brackets was supposed to remain on any appliance including refrigerators until in use.

There's our friend Joe Blow again who tells us what to do; he is our little friend who writes all these directions for a reason. He's the greatest friend we have and it proves for a fact that sometimes even I do not appreciate him!

All of my noise stopped immediately.

Isn't it wonderful to be a woman? Our husbands may think we are dumb . . . truly sometimes we are . . . but I know something that even "he" doesn't know today!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I find that using a dry sponge on a damp sink after sprinkling it with cleaner will remove the stains better!

A. READER.

DEAR HELOISE: Being a nurse and profiting by my hospital training, I use this idea when my children have colds and it saves me picking up tissues from the floor.

I pin—with an ordinary safety pin—a paper bag or a homemade newspaper bag to the side of the bed so that my children can drop their tissues in it.

NURSE.

DEAR HELOISE: When you use your electric mixer and find splashing a problem, shape some aluminum foil around it "come fashion" so the large end of the cone will rest on the bowl. Squeeze the cone loosely around the shaft of the mixer's paddle. Ingredients in the mixer will not splash.

WOODY.

DEAR HELOISE: Pipe cleaners are wonderful to clean can openers. They will bend to fit all those tiny crevices and round surfaces and the soft pile will pick up all the residue.

LYNN CATHER.

Parent Wins Verdict Over Pupils Haul

LISBON — Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard late Monday ordered the Southern Local Board of Education to pay Aniel Jones of Salineville R. D., $661 for transporting his children 1.8 miles from his home to Route 644, where they were picked up by school bus.

Jones had filed his petition against the board for $1,341, asking payment of $2 per day. The new Southern Local Board offered him $1 per day but he would not accept it. He had not been paid anything since the 1958-59 school term.

At the hearing yesterday, the board claimed it was not liable for the transportation because the road to his home is a private lane. The court held the board had abused its discretion and that residing on a private road did not absolve the board of its obligation to transport such children to school, as it is doing this for two other families in a different area.

The Southern Local Board was ordered to pay the $661 and to furnish transportation in the future or pay for it until otherwise provided by law or until further action in accordance with the law is taken by the board.

Jones' petition had included the Columbiana County Board of Education as co-defendants but the court dismissed the county board as all it did was approve the Southern Local Board's $1 offer as fair.

The suit was filed April 20, 1962, and on March 26, 1963, a pre-trial hearing was held and the court ordered each side to file briefs.

2 Men Captured After Holdup Of Bank In Medina

MEDINA, Ohio (AP) — A few minutes after $6,095 was taken from a branch of the Akron Savings & Loan Co. Monday, police recovered the money and arrested two men from Portsmouth.

Harold Thompson, 34, a barber, and Lawrence Rollins, 29, an ex-convict, were arraigned early today. Both were charged with bank robbery.

Thompson waived a hearing but Rollins asked for a preliminary hearing, which was set for Aug. 7. Both were held in the Cuyahoga County jail in lieu of $25,000 bond each.

Police said Thompson, armed with a .32-caliber pistol, entered the bank Monday about 2:40 p. m. while Rollins remained in a car parked across from the shopping center in the north end of Medina.

Thompson held two tellers at gunpoint, police said, while the manager was forced to scoop the money into a paper bag. As soon as Thompson left the building, the bank employees sounded an alarm.

It was heard by Patrolman Arnold Siegfried, who was nearby in a cruiser. He rushed to the scene and saw Thompson running into the car. Siegfried signaled another cruiser for aid as he pursued the getaway car.

As the second cruiser, driven by Sgt. Merle Frederick, drove up, Siegfried pulled his car in front of the fleeing auto and blocked its path. The two men surrendered meekly.

Wounded Soldier Writes Letter To Chester Family

A Chester sergeant, wounded in action July 16 at Saigon, Viet Nam, is recuperating at a hospital near there and expects to return to duty within the next two weeks.

Sgt. George E. Smith, 25, was hit in the calf of the right leg by three pieces of shrapnel from a mortar shell which struck the building in which he was quartered.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Potts, 225 Carolina Ave. On Monday, they received the first letter from him since he was wounded.

He told them he had just arrived in Saigon a few hours earlier and was sleeping in a building near the airstrip when the attack was made by Viet Cong Communist guerrillas.

He said he was awakened by the staccato sound of machine gun fire and then heard the dull thud of mortar shells. One came right through the building above his bunk and exploded, wounding a total of 14 men.

Sgt. Smith said he had jumped to the floor when he heard the firing. Three pieces of the shrapnel struck him in the leg and he pulled out one of the larger pieces himself. He is a combat medic with the American guerrilla forces.

Commenting on the hit, Sgt. Smith said "the Reds sure hit the jackpot with that shell."

All those who were wounded have been presented the Purple Heart. Sgt. Smith also is slated to receive the combat medic medal for the action.

In later action, three were killed. Sgt. Smith said one of the men traveled overseas with his group by plane.

"This is not a police action—it's for real," he commented. He said he should return to active duty within two weeks.

But Police Have Clue

Woman At Dayton Loses $5,500 In Old Con Trick

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — One of the oldest confidence games in the swindler's arsenal has bilked a 74-year-old Dayton woman of $5,500 in cash and $1,000 in jewelry.

An odd twist to Monday's incident was a jaywalking citation that could provide the best clue to the culprits.

Clara B. Davis, the victim, told police this story:

She struck up a conversation with a woman in a Dayton bank regarding a supposed search by the stranger for someone to look after her elderly mother. They walked out and as they talked at a busy intersection another woman approached.

The second stranger told of having found $20,000 in a paper bag. Mrs. Davis was talked into putting up "good faith" money.

They didn't return.

Unsuccessful at one key shop, they headed for another—and a policeman issued the victim and one of the other women tickets for jaywalking.

They got the key made at another shop and went to the bank again, where Mrs. Davis went to draw out some cash. The teller vainly advised her not to.

She turned the cash and valuables over to the women and as instructed, waited in a telephone booth for their return.

They didn't return.

Congressmen Urge New Bid To End Castro Rule In Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

CUBA: About 25 congressmen of both parties, speaking in the House for almost four hours Monday, recommended stronger action to rid Cuba of Premier Fidel Castro and his Communist regime.

The recommendations ranged from stricter economic sanctions to encouraging and arming Cuban exiles to fight Castro.

KENNEDY TRIP?: Speculation persists that President Kennedy might make a trip to the Far East late this year, although the White House says there are no such plans at present.

The rumors that another overseas trip may be in store for the President, who recently returned from a visit to Europe, were helped along by a radio report heard in Iran that Kennedy might visit there next winter. The White House had no comment on the broadcast.

CONSULATES: The State Department says it is tightening up overseas operations by closing 13 consulates, but emphasizes that the action "does not reflect any change whatsoever in U.S. relationships with the countries or areas" involved.

The announcement said closing the consulates will save this country more than $500,000 a year and that will result in "more effective administration" of foreign operations.

Koppers Shows Gain In Income And Sales

Koppers Co. of Pittsburgh has reported net income of $2,433,000, or $1.02 per common share, for the second quarter of the year, compared with $2,005,000 or 82 cents a share in the same period of 1962.

Sales totaled $77,301,000 compared with $75,623,000.

For the first six months of 1963, net income was $3,698,000, equal to $1.52 a share, compared with $3,725,000 or $1.51 a share in the first half of 1962.

Judge Frees Ex-Lover Of Vice Figure

LONDON (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeal today freed one of Christine Keeler's Negro ex-lovers, Aloysius (Lucky) Gordon, from a three-year prison sentence given him on a charge of assaulting the 21-year-old call girl.

The chief justice, Lord Parker, reversed the conviction on the basis of new evidence, including a 10-hour tape recording made by Christine while she was high on marijuana.

The chief justice did not make the new evidence public.

Gordon, 31, a Jamaican jazz singer, was freed after a nine-minute hearing. Lord Parker said his court had no jurisdiction to retry the case on fresh evidence and, "in many ways unfortunately, there is no provision for a new trial in such cases."

"But the court certainly thinks that if this evidence had been called," the chief justice continued, "the jury may have had a doubt in the matter."

Gordon was convicted last month of beating up Christine on April 18.

Seven weeks later she became the center of Britain's biggest political scandal of the century, when War Minister John D. Profumo resigned from the House of Commons and from Prime Minister Macmillan's government. He confessed he had lied to Commons in denying having had an affair with Christine.

Another casualty of the Profumo scandal, socialite osteopath Dr. Stephen Ward, is on trial on charges of operating a stable of prostitutes in which Miss Keeler and her chum, Marilyn (Mandy) Rice-Davies, 18, were star performers.

Ward's case is expected to go to the jury today or Wednesday.

River Rd. Crash Damages 2 Cars

Two cars were damaged Monday at 1:35 p. m. in a collision on the River Rd. at the Walnut St. railroad crossing, police reported.

Maureen Cronin Marries Jon Madish Of Ohio View

Presentation Catholic Church at Midland was the scene of the marriage of Miss Maureen Cronin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cronin of Midland Heights, to Jon Madish, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Madish of Avondale Dr., Ohio View, the morning of July 13 at 11 o'clock.

Fr. John Sabovick, assistant pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with cybotium ferns and large urns of lacy white fuji mums, spiked with pink snapdragons to complete the color scheme.

In an organ recital preceding the ceremony, traditional music was played by Mrs. Helen Angelone.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a full-length gown of Swiss cotton pique, designed by her uncle, John McNeill, and custom tailored by Miss Rose Korak of Monaca. Styled along classic lines, with fitted bodice and cap sleeves, the gown featured a circlet neckline, accented with a halo of sculptured Brussels cotton lace.

The bell-shaped skirt of inverted unpressed pleats was highlighted with vertical rows of the same lace that formed front and back panels for the tapered pique bows that fell from the waist into a full sweep cathedral train. The hemline was scalloped and was repeated in the gowns of the entire wedding party.

Her triple tiered bouffant veil of imported French illusion was attached to a coronet of matching sculptured lace and pique trim. Her cascade bouquet of California majestic daisies was highlighted with pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis. She carried a lace handkerchief borrowed from her grandmother, Mrs. Charles McNeill of Beaver.

The bride observed the traditions including six pence in her shoe — a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Joyce of Beaver.

Miss Magdalene Spano of Beaver Falls was maid of honor. She wore a full-length gown of white swiss pique fashioned with a fitted bodice and scoop neckline.

It featured a moire taffeta sash of tropic pink that formed a butterfly bow at the back and a bell-shaped skirt with scalloped hemline. She wore a miniature pillow of pink taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of pink-tinted majestic daisies and illusion.

Miss Trudy Madish, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Karen McPherson, a cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids and Miss Maureen McPherson, another cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

They were attired in gowns of Richard Reed of Ohio View was best man. Ushers were James Wolfe of Industry, Paul Ursick of Monaca, William Muns, a cousin of the bridegroom and William Cronin, brother of the bride.

A dinner for 70 guests was held at Deramo's Azure Room. An open house and reception were given in the evening at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle McPherson of Beaver. The decorations were in accord with the color scheme of the wedding. Mrs. McPherson presided at the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Midland High School and received training as a laboratory technician at Rochester General Hospital. She is employed at Providence Hospital in Beaver Falls.

Her husband also is a graduate of the same high school and Gale Institute of Minneapolis, Minn. He will attend the Allegheny Aeronautics Institute in Pittsburgh in the fall.

Children Put Into Protest In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Antidiscrimination demonstrators sent children into their peaceful fight today for more jobs for Negroes in construction trades.

Willie Brinson, 35, a Negro barber of Brooklyn, led a group of 10 youngsters into the entrance of a Brooklyn hospital site where they sat down and refused to move. Five were his own children and the others were related to him.

The youngsters, aged 2 to 13, broke into delighted grins when policemen carefully lifted them from the ground and put them into unmarked patrol cars. Police said they would not be charged.

"This is the beginning of a stepped-up campaign to make the public more aware of our fight," said the Rev. William A. Jones, minister of Bethany Baptist Church in Brooklyn and one of the Negro leaders of the 20-day demonstration. He implied that other children would be used.

Eight persons, including Brinson, were arrested in Brooklyn and one at a similar protest at a housing project in Queens.

Shortly after the demonstrators arrived at the Downstate Medical Center project in Brooklyn—one of several locations in the city where almost 700 civil rights pickets have been arrested this month—the pattern of the protest was repeated.

Pickets marched in orderly fashion, individuals leaving the line periodically in small groups or alone to block entrance to the project and provoke arrest.

The first persons charged today were two ministers, one white and one Negro, who civilly disobeyed police orders to allow a cement truck to pass.

Fifty-five demonstrators were arrested Monday, the majority for interfering with work at public construction projects and three for blocking the entrance to Mayor Wagner's office.

Ten of the arrests occurred at the Brooklyn hospital and 42 at the Rochdale Village Apartments construction in Jamaica, Queens.

Children Shouldn't Enter Empty Houses

As editor of a children's magazine, I read many a submitted story about children who, while wandering about, usually in a remote area, enter a vacant or deserted house and explore it with a variety of experiences. Some times the house is referred to as haunted. I must have examined fifty Dr. Garry Meyers such stories within the past year. In a few of these stories, a parent may be with the children exploring. In most of the stories, the parents knew all about the matter and, presumably, approved.

I DON'T RECALL a single story in which the child, even the parent, had secured permission of the owner to enter the vacant house.

Not one of these stories was accepted, of course, as it seemed to me immoral to have any child read or hear a story revealing no regard for the rights of the owner of property. Why so many will write such stories for children, supposing they were interesting, without any concern about the probable effect on ideals and character, I can't understand.

As the writers, some of them parents, are probably a good cross-section of all adults, I assume that most children would act about the way children do in these rejected stories and that they would usually do so with the knowledge and approval of their parents.

If you live in a town or village, or near the outer limits of a big city, you know of numerous vacant houses into which children from so-called good homes go to explore and "have fun."

LET'S HOPE NONE of these children are yours. Often you notice that many windows have been broken, lights on the porches shattered or doors broken down — usually done by youngsters "just for fun".

As you and your children may see one or more vacant houses not far from your home, you have an opportunity to guide these children in wholesome citizenship. Do try to get over to them by precept and example that they never should enter any such house, ever go onto its porch or wander about it or throw a stone or anything else at it.

If you can find the owner of the house, he might be glad to go with you and your child to look through the house. When with your child, you observe other children prowling about the place or see shattered windows in this house, you have an opportunity to call to his attention how wrong it was for anyone to be so destructive.

RIGHT AT HOME from the time your child begins to toddle, you will guide him in hundreds and hundreds of situations not to destroy anything just for fun. You will be very concerned about his regard for any property right next door or nearby.

If you see him at four, five or six deliberately throw a stone at a car or street light you would seize and paddle him before he could say "I did it." Whenever you observed him, regardless of his age, destroying such property, you would treat the matter seriously and decisively.

Of course, you would also try to teach your child from his early years to be careful of his own things and other people's things and to enjoy practicing great regard for the rights of all other persons.

My bulletins, "Teaching Child Care of Property" and "Educating Child in Responsibility," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Kaiser Workers Due Longer Vacation Plan

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—About 1,800 Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp. workers here, members of the United Steelworkers of America, soon will get a 13-week vacation every five years under a new contract.

Union officials contend the aluminum industry contract, negotiated last week in New York, is better than the steel industry's much-publicized vacation plan. Aluminum workers also may elect to take a 10-week vacation and get double pay for the other three weeks.

2 Passersby Rescue Woman From River

A 30-year-old Chester housewife was rescued from the Ohio River near the Broadway wharf at 2 a. m. today by two passersby who had heard moans.

Police said Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, wife of Herbert Moore of 3rd St. Ext., was found floating face down in the river about 20 feet from shore.

She was admitted to City Hospital, where a physician said she was suffering from exposure and inflamed ears, police said. She was listed in "fair" condition.

A St. Clair Ave. man and a Negley resident told police they left a cafe on lower Broadway shortly before 2 and decided to walk to the city wharf. As they approached the river, they heard cries and moans, they said. Investigating, they discovered the woman lying face down in the river at the end of a dock about 20 feet from shore. The two men pulled the woman to shore and then called the police department.

Stop Overloading At One Big Meal

The current nutrition research on calorie-timing is really exciting, for it points the way by which the overly fat can build healthy leanness.

Doctor's term obesity America's most serious nutritional problem. The most recent research shed new light, finding in nutrition a restyle number.

Here are the significant facts: First, the experiments:

Dr. Clarence Cohn of Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago conducted the initial research on nibbling versus big meal-eating in experimental animals. It was found that the little white rats who ate all their daily quota of calories in two large loads, deposited more fat and retained less protein.

WHAT ABOUT weight? As long as the same quantity of food was consumed, the calories were equal, and the weights of the two groups were identical. The meal-eating group weighed no more, but they were fatter. That is, the new tissue added was fat.

The other group, the nibblers, on the same diet-mixture, eating ad libitum a comparable amount of food, built lean bodies. Of the greatest significance was the fact that the serum cholesterol levels of the big-meal eaters was double that of the nibblers.

Further scientific experiments were conducted by Hollifield and Parson of the University of Virginia School of Medicine. In these experiments the meal-eating animals were allowed access to food for a limited time, and they soon learned that it was now-or-never to get their rations. In the allotted time they gobbled up all the food in sight, and ate a greater quantity of food than the leisurely nibbling animals. Results: The "gobblers" weighed 30 per cent more than the nibblers and had far more fat in their tissues.

WHAT CAN we learn from these experiments: Primarily, that overeating at one big meal overwhelms the body with excess food, and more fat is laid down in the tissues. The overload is shunted into another chemical pathway. The effect of this pent-up is an obligatory pathway into fat. More about this factor of food-into-fat tomorrow.

Breakfast: Fruit juice, half cup; Cereal, hot or cold, 3/4 cup; Milk, 1/2 cup

In 1942, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the bill authorizing creation of a women's reserve in the Navy.

In 1945 British aristocrat John Amery pleaded innocent in London to charges of treason.

Ten years ago: Indian Prime Minister Nehru said Red China's admission to the United Nations was essential to a stable peace following the end of the Korean War.

Five years ago: Cuban rebel leader Fidel Castro demanded withdrawal of U.S. Marines sent to Cuban territory to guard the water supply of the big U.S. naval base at Guantanamo.

One year ago: At least 40 persons died in a series of earthquakes in west-central Colombia.

Two Young Pitchers Victims Of Heartbreaking Losses

Palmer Wins Western Open By 1

Arnie Hits $96,955 In Winnings

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—A bogey was worth $11,000 to Arnold Palmer in the strangest putting hole ever to confound golfing greats locked in a major tournament.

Arnie took the Western Open title and its accompanying check as a gift from Julius Boros and Jack Nicklaus in an 18-hole play-off Monday.

Suffice to say that Arnie won by shooting 33-37-70 over the dominating Beverly Country Club course and its par 36-35-71.

Boros, with 36-35-71, and Nicklaus, 37-36-73, each pocketed $4,450.

Palmer boosted his winnings to $96,955, giving him a shot at becoming the first golfer to win $100,000 in a season.

The playoff can be capuled on the par 3,205-yard 17th hole with its tricky, rolling green. Two successive birdies had helped pull National Open champion Boros into a tie with Palmer at the 16th, each with 61 strokes, while the Masters' and PGA king, Nicklaus, seemed left at the post with 63.

At the 17th, all used No. 2 irons off the tee.

Boros went over the green into the crowd and deep rough. Nicklaus stuck his shot five feet from the cup. Palmer pulled his into a trap on the left side of the green.

Palmer exploded from the trap and rolled 35 feet past the hole. Boros' chip was on the green but 40 feet short.

Boros putted three feet past the hole. Palmer putted four feet past. Nicklaus rimmed the cup and rolled nearly four feet beyond.

Palmer dropped his for a bogey 4. Nicklaus again missed, also taking a 4. Boros missed, getting a double bogey 5.

EL Pony All-Stars Capture Area Tourney At Weirton

The East Liverpool Pony League All-Stars captured their second straight Area Pony Tournament championship with a 9-5 victory over Weirton Monday night on the Weirton diamond.

It's on to Marietta now for the East Liverpool lads who move into District play this weekend. Their opponent is not known as yet.

Some timely relief pitching by Mike McVay and six Weirton errors helped East Liverpool past Weirton. Weirton broke on top with two runs in the first inning then added two more in the top of the second inning for a 4-0 lead. Emory Brewer had started for East Liverpool and Jack Myler came on in the second but couldn't hold the Weirton nine.

East Liverpool tied the game with a big four-run outburst in the second inning then McVay went to the mound to limit Weirton to one run on three hits over the last five innings.

The locals followed the big second inning with three more runs in the third, then added two more in the fifth. Weirton scored its other run in the fourth inning.

During his mound appearance, McVay fanned nine Weirton batters and didn't issue a walk. Myler had four strikeouts during his brief appearance.

Mike Goodballet came up with half of the hits collected by East Liverpool when he hit safely three times in four trips to the plate. A run-scoring double by Phil Talbott was another key blow for the locals. Keefe of Weirton blasted a home run and double to drive in three runs.

Shrader was the starting and losing hurler for the Weirton nine.

The double elimination tournament saw East Liverpool and Weirton split two previous games over the weekend, each winning a one-run decision.

Koufax Hurls 17th Victory

Mays Belts Another HR To Top Bucs

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Handy Sandy Koufax, performing a thorough clean-up job for the Los Angeles Dodgers, has pulled the National League leaders out of their longest losing streak in two months.

Koufax pitched a five-hitter and posted his 17th victory in a 6-2 decision over surging Philadelphia that ended the Dodgers' losing streak at four games and maintained their 4½-game bulge over the pursuing pack.

Winless for 13 days as the Dodgers struggled through their worst skid since early June, Koufax pitched smoothly if not spectacularly, with home run support from Tommy Davis and Willie Davis.

The 27-year-old left-hander has a 17-4 record — tied with Juan Marichal of San Francisco for the most victories in the majors. He is No. 1 in strikeouts with 195 in 194 2/3 innings and in complete games with 15 while maintaining a brilliant 1.89 earned run average.

San Francisco slipped past idle St. Louis into second place as Willie Mays hammered his second straight game-winning homer and gave the Giants a 5-4 victory over Pittsburgh.

In the only other NL game scheduled, Milwaukee's Warren Spahn posted his 340th victory, with homers by Hank Aaron and Lee Maye providing the power, 8-2 over Cincinnati.

Trailing 3-0 after two innings, the Giants closed the gap to a run on Chuck Hiller's third-inning homer and took the lead for good when Mays hit his 24th homer with two on in the fifth. The shot by Mays tagged Vern Law, 4-5, with the defeat and gave the victory to reliever Jim Duffalo, 3-0.

Spahn, slowed recently because of a sore elbow, picked up his first victory since July 7, checking the Reds on six hits. The 42-year-old left-hander, 13-5, was touched for homers by Vada Pinson and Frank Robinson. John Tostouris, 7-4, started for Cincinnati and was a loser by the time he had pitched to four batters. With one out Tostouris walked Ed Mathews and Aaron and Maye followed with consecutive homers.

The Air Force Academy football team this fall will play Washington, Nebraska and Boston College for the first time.

White Sox Hurler Drops No-Hitter And Game In Ninth Inning

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Heartbreaking losses for a pair of youngsters and a touch of luck for a veteran. It was that kind of a night on the American League pitching scene Monday.

Joel Horlen of the Chicago White Sox had his brilliant try for a no-hitter—and victory—shattered in the last of the ninth at Washington. Chuck Hinton's single with one out was the first Senator hit off the 25-year-old right-hander, recalled from the minors last week. Then Don Lock's two-out homer pinned Horlen with a 2-1 loss.

At Baltimore, rookie Mickey Lolich of the Detroit Tigers held the Orioles to one single through eight innings but in the ninth Al Smith singled with one away and one out later pinch batter Dick Brown smashed a homer and Baltimore won 2-1.

Old-timer Robin Roberts got the victory with a two-hit performance.

At Cleveland, Dean Chance of the Indians fired a two-hitter at the Indians and was backed by a free-scoring plurge that included an eight-run third inning capped by Felix Torres' grand slam homer. Score—11-0.

Also in the AL—Dave Wicksham turned in an eight-hit shut-out and Wayne Causey and Norm Siebern banged homers as Kansas City beat New York's first-place Yankees 5-0 and Boston withstood a Minnesota home run spree in downing the Twins 7-5.

Horlen, going for the first no-hitter in Washington in 32 years, retired leadoff man Jim King in the ninth before Hinton bounced his single. Larry Osborne grounded out and Lock followed with his 17th homer. The loss was the third against five victories for Horlen. Ron Kline was the winner after pitching the ninth for Washington.

Lolich, a 22-year-old left-hander, retired the first 11 batters, gave up a single in the fourth to Bob Johnson, then set down 14 more in a row before Smith batted for Roberts and singled. Luis Aparicio fled to left and Brown whacked Lolich's first pitch for his second homer of the year.

Roberts allowed one Tiger hit in the first and one in the ninth, walked two and hit a batter. The only run off the 36-year-old right-hander was unearned.

Fred Whitfield broke up Chance's no-hit bid with two out in the seventh when he looped a single to center. Woodie Held singled in the eighth for Cleveland's other hit. The big right-hander walked three and struck out 12.

The Angels pounded five Cleveland pitchers for 14 hits, getting six in their eight-run burst against loser Dick Donovan and Jerry Walker.

Owens Sent To San Diego

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds bought the contract of pitcher Jim Owens, a one-time New York Yankee hurler, from their San Diego club of the Pacific Coast League today and released pitcher Jim Owens to the Padres.

Owens, a 30-year-old right-hander, was acquired by the Reds organization from the Washington Senators earlier this year and had compiled a 3-2 record as a starter and reliever for San Diego.

Owens pitched four full seasons for the Yankees, starting in 1959 and had a combined 37-15 record.

Owens, acquired by the Reds from Philadelphia, has been used largely in relief this season and has an 0-2 record.

Rigney Won't Put Up With Jim's Antics

CLEVELAND (AP)—Los Angeles Manager Bill Rigney isn't going to stand for any hijinks from controversial Jim Piersall. He says the outfielder isn't any help to the team when he's suspended.

Piersall was suspended until Friday and fined $250 by American League President Joe Cronin for Piersall's flareup in Boston with umpires Bill Kinnaman and John Stevens Sunday.

"I'm going to have to get to the umpires a little quicker," said Rigney. "The instant I see Piersall turn toward an umpire I'm going to jump out of the dug-out."

Rigney said he talked Monday to Piersall and hopes the outfielder, signed by the Angels Saturday after being released by the New York Mets, has learned his lesson.

BASEBALL HEROES

BATTING—Willie Mays, Giants, hit game-winning homer for second straight time, tagging three-run, fifth-inning shot that provided 5-4 victory over Pittsburgh and extended San Francisco's winning streak to eight games.

PITCHING—Dean Chance, Angels, pitched 6-2-3 innings of no-hit ball, wound up with two-hitter in 11-0 triumph over Cleveland.

Junior Editors Quiz on THE HARP

QUESTION: To what family of musical instruments does the harp belong?

ANSWER: The harp is the oldest of the family of stringed musical instruments. Primitive hunting bows produced slight sounds when their cords were twanged (1) and louder sounds if a hollow object like a gourd was attached (2). The next step was to use more strings and a box, narrow at the top and wide at the bottom to increase the sounds of the different lengths of string (3). After this, some stringed instruments were made with necks so the players could make different tones by shortening the strings with their fingers, and others were sounded with a bow or by little hammers from below--these become violins and pianos.

But the ancient instrument shown in (3) continued to be used and became known as the harp. The Egyptian harp we show has more strings but is very similar to the older one. The front pillar shown in the Irish harp was another improvement. The harp's great weakness was that there were not enough strings to give all the in-between notes, or semi-tones. The pedals which turn little stoppers just below the string pegs, shortening the strings so the in-between notes can be sounded.

FOR YOU TO DO: The thing that makes the harp different from every other musical instrument is the soft, rippling beauty of its sound--something like the tinkle of raindrops. Try to find a record which includes harp music and listen carefully.

Deborah Whitman of Springfield, Mo., wins the daily grand prize of a 20-volume set of World Book Encyclopedias for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of the Review and you too may win a set.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 35 years old and already a flop. I have no real friends although a lot of people pretend to like me. I get invited places but only because people feel sorry for me.

I have a fair figure and my mother says I can buy all the clothes I want, but my taste is terrible. I hate to shop because the clothes I go crazy over in the store look awful when I get them home.

I can't do anything well because I'm a clumsy cow. I'm a lousy tennis player. I can't swim and I hate to dance. My voice is so screechy the choir teacher has asked me to just move my lips and not try to sing with the others.

I always say the wrong thing and laugh at the wrong time. Please help me before I start high school in September. —MISS NOTHING.

Dear Miss: Those who think too well of themselves are a pain in the neck. Your problem is the reverse and equally unattractive.

It's a drag to hear people forever running themselves into the ground. Among other things it indicates that they think people are paying more attention to them than they actually are.

Get out of the habit of tuning in on yourself 100 times a day. Turn your thoughts outward — toward others. After having done your best—whether it's tennis, swimming or whatever — forget your inadequacies and concentrate on something else.

Urban League Meets

Racial Friction Termed 'Crisis For Democracy'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "The current racial crisis is not a crisis of the Negro, or of the conservative, or of the reactionary white. It is a crisis of the American people and the democratic way of life," says criminologist Joseph D. Lohman.

Dr. Lohman, dean of the School of Criminology of the University of California at Berkeley, told the National Urban League on Monday that Negroes make up 10 per cent of the nation's population and yet account for 20 per cent of juvenile delinquency.

"Negro youth are exposed to the evil effect of being blocked from cultural assimilation in our cities," said Lohman, "and their crime is the abortive fruit of our failure. We are at a critical juncture in American community development."

Nelson C. Jackson of New York, associate executive director of the league said earlier that the effects of discrimination are becoming intensified as cities grow.

Jackson estimated that the unemployment rate is twice as high among Negroes as that of the nation in general. About 50 per cent of Negroes between 16 and 21 are not working, he said, and more than two-thirds of Negroes who do have jobs are grouped in five unskilled and semi-skilled job clas-

Warning To Widows

Dear Ann: You might call this letter "A Warning To Widows: Stay in Your Own Home."

My husband died four months ago and my daughter and son-in-law insisted that I sell my home and come live with them. I was grief-stricken, lonely and confused when I said "yes." It was the biggest mistake I ever made.

My house is gone, my furniture is gone and I'm a guest in someone else's home. My teen-age grandchildren are disrespectful and make me feel as if I am in the way. To hear them talk I wonder how I could have lived so long and learned so little.

I was once a friendly, pleasant person but now I feel like a useless, sour old woman. I gave up everything dear to me and I really didn't have to. Please tell other widows to stay where they are—even if it's a single room. I wish I had—NOT HAPPY.

Dear Not Happy: If you feel a single room would be better, why don't you find one?

Some mistakes are beyond repair but this one can be remedied and I hope you do it promptly.

Gal With Gall

Dear Ann: My cousin is getting married in August and I've been asked to be an usher. Linda, the girl I'm going with, doesn't know the bride or the bridegroom except casually. She put a lot of heat on me to get her invited to the wedding and the reception so I did.

Last night Linda asked me what I was doing the Friday before the wedding. I told her I was going to the rehearsal dinner. She got mad and said if I went without her we were finished.

Now I don't know if I should phone my cousin and try to get Linda invited to the rehearsal dinner. My mother says Linda has a lot of gall to put me on the spot this way and that I shouldn't jump through hoops for her.

I like Linda a lot and don't want to lose her. Help, please.—BOSTON BLACKIE.

Dear Boston: Most rehearsal dinners are for the wedding party and some out-of-town guests. Linda's demands are clearly out of line. If the friendship is going to stand or fall on this issue—I say let it fall.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

5 Summitville Jobs At Stake

SUMMITVILLE — Village voters will ballot on two Council posts, along with the offices of mayor, clerk and treasurer in the general election Nov. 5.

The terms of Mayor Ernest Phillips; Mrs. Marjorie Roberts, clerk; Mrs. Evelyn Rogers, treasurer, and Councilmen Clair Frazer and Howard Speirs will expire Dec. 31.

Councilmen Frazer and Speirs were elected to two-year terms in the 1961 election, when the village reorganization system went into effect.

Councilmen Raymond Arsuffi, Dean Dowdell, William Swinger and Dominick Sabatino were elected to four-year terms — due to expire in 1965.

Deadline for filing as a non-partisan candidate with the County Election Board is Aug. 7.

No candidates have filed yet for village posts, but Mayor Phillips is expected to seek another term.

When you have parsley in the house, you'll find it adds fine flavor to a tossed green salad.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Is there any way I can make a temporary repair on the porcelain flush tank on a toilet which is cracked?

A. This can be repaired temporarily until the tank is replaced by using some resin glue. First, be sure to dry the tank thoroughly inside and out. Then apply the glue to the crack with a brush and rub it into the fracture thoroughly with the fingers. Wipe off the excess glue, and let the repair dry for at least 24 hours before allowing the water to run into the tank.

Q. How can I store away silverware and prevent tarnish?

A. Wrap the pieces of silver individually in tissue paper and store them in a tall potato-chip can, sealing the top cover with some cellulose tape — or store it in airtight glass jars.

Q. How can I remedy slightly scorched woollens?

A. Wet the blemish, then rub dry cornstarch over it. Brush off the cornstarch when the article is dry.
